Genesis Medical Staffing Opens Corporate Headquarters Making a difference in healthcare staffing across the United States

OMAHA, NE. (October 2010) — Genesis Medical Staffing has opened for business and has already started to supply qualified staff to medical facilities and practices across the United States. Acting as an extension of their clients' human resources department, Genesis Medical Staffing enables practices and facilities to complete all their business objectives while bringing piece of mind during the hiring process.

"We are making a difference in the world of healthcare by serving clients and employees with unparalleled service, showing that in today's world a company really does care and is dedicated to its people," says Paul Taylor, Vice President/Owner.

Genesis Medical Staffing specializes in contract staffing and client-hire/full-time contingent placement throughout the entire United States. The company has placed staff in acute care facilities, specialty hospitals and clinics and physicians' offices. Their focus is placing allied health professionals in niche markets which include Radiation Therapy, Dosimetry, Physics, Oncology Rn's, all areas of Radiology, to include all modalities of Sonography, as well as Cath lab and Cath Lab RN's.

The team of professionals at Genesis Medical Staffing brings over 30 years of combined medical staffing experience along with many solid industry relationships. The positive reputation of their staff can be attributed to their impeccable service and business expertise, which is offered to each and every client and employee.

Genesis Medical Staffing believes the relationships are built to last as they continually maintain contact and communication with all clients and candidates. GMS makes it a point to follow-up with all parties at the end of each assignment to ensure quality satisfaction is achieved.

"At Genesis, our success is a direct result of the relationships created and continued through the responsiveness, care, and the overall business partnerships we offer," Taylor states.
